ORDER OF SERVICE

Greeting and Entrance Procession

Music: Time by Pink Floyd

Invitation to prayer:

God of faithfulness, in your wisdom you have called
your servant Gerry out of this world.
Release him from the bonds of sin and welcome him
into your presence so that he may enjoy eternal light and peace and be raised up in glory with all your saints.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Reading: Isaiah 25: 6-9

On this mountain,
the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples
a banquet of rich food.

On this mountain he will remove
the mourning veil covering all peoples,
and the shroud enwrapping all nations,
he will destroy Death for ever.
The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek;
he will take away his people's shame
everywhere on earth,
for the Lord has said so.

That day, it will be said: See, this is our God
in whom we hoped for salvation;
the Lord is the one in whom we hoped.
We exult and we rejoice
that he has saved us.

Reader: The word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God

Hymn: The King of Love My Shepherd Is

The King of love my shepherd is,
whose goodness faileth never.

I nothing lack if I am his,
and he is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow,
my ransomed soul he leadeth;
and where the verdant pastures grow,
with food celestial feedeth.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill,
with thee, dear Lord, beside me;
thy rod and staff my comfort still,
thy cross before to guide me.

And so through all the length of days,
thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise
within thy house forever.

Reading: 2 Corinthians 5: 1, 6-10

We know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up,
there is a house built by God for us,
an everlasting home not made by human hands,
in the heavens.

We are always full of confidence, then,
when we remember that to live in the body
means to be exiled from the Lord,
going as we do by faith and not by sight
— we are full of confidence, I say,
and actually want to be exiled from the body
and make our home with the Lord.
Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it,
we are intent on pleasing him.
For all the truth about us
will be brought out in the law court of Christ,
and each of us will get what he deserves
for the things he did in the body, good or bad.

The word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God

All: Alleluia, Alleluia!

Come, you whom my Father has blessed, says the Lord;
take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you
since the foundation of the world.

All: Alleluia, Alleluia!

Canon: The Lord be with you

All: And with your spirit

Reading: The Holy Gospel according to John (14: 1-6)

All: Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus said to his disciples:
‘Do not let your hearts be troubled.
Trust in God still, and trust in me.
There are many rooms in my Father’s house;
if there were not, I should have told you.
I am going now to prepare a place for you,
and after I have gone and prepared you a place,
I shall return to take you with me;
so that where I am
you may be too.
You know the way to the place where I am going.’

Thomas said, ‘Lord, we do not know where you are going,
so how can we know the way?’

Jesus said:
‘I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.
No one can come to the Father except through me.’

Canon: The Gospel of the Lord

Concluding Prayer

Eulogy: Read by Sean Reilly

Music: Amazing Grace

Crystal Gospel Choir

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound
that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear
the hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come:
'tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
bright shining as the sun,
we've no less days to sing God's praise
than when we'd first begun.
